

TERMS OF BUSINESS

The following terms of business apply to all engagements accepted by Gerber Landa & Gee Ltd. All work is carried out under these terms except where changes are expressly agreed in writing.

1. APPLICABLE LAW

- 1.1. Our engagement letter, the schedules of services and our standard terms and conditions of business are governed by, and should be construed in accordance with Scots law. Each party agrees that the courts of Scotland will have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to any claim, dispute or difference concerning this engagement letter and any matter arising from it on any basis. Each party irrevocably waives any right to object to any action being brought in those courts, to claim that the action has been brought in an inappropriate forum, or to claim that those courts do not have jurisdiction.
- 1.2. We will not accept responsibility if you act on advice previously given by us without first confirming with us that the advice is still valid in light of any change in the law or in your circumstances. We will accept no liability for losses arising from changes in the law, or the interpretation thereof, that occur after the date on which the advice is given.

2. CLIENT IDENTIFICATION

- 2.1. As with other professional services firms, we are required to identify our clients for the purposes of the UK anti-money laundering legislation. We may request from you, and retain, such information and documentation as we require for these purposes and/or make searches of appropriate databases. If we are not able to obtain satisfactory evidence of your identity, we will not be able to proceed with the engagement.
- 2.2. If you undertake business that requires you to be supervised by an appropriate supervisory authority to follow anti-money laundering regulations including if you accept or make high value cash payments of £10,000 or more (or equivalent in any currency) in exchange for goods you should inform us.
- 2.3. Any personal data received from you to comply with our obligations under the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer for Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (as amended by the Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing (Amendment) Regulations 2019 and Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020) (MLR 2017) will be processed only for the purposes of preventing money laundering or terrorist financing. No other use will be made of this personal data unless use of the data is permitted by law or under enactment other than the MLR 2017, or we have obtained the consent of the data subject to the proposed use of the data.

3. CLIENTS' MONEY

- 3.1. We may, from time to time, hold money on your behalf. The money will be held in trust in a client bank account, which is segregated from the firm's funds. The account will be operated, and all funds dealt with, in accordance with ICAS's Clients' Money Regulations.
- 3.2. If the total sum of money held on your behalf is enough to give rise to a significant amount of interest or is likely to do so, we will put the money in a designated interest-bearing client bank account and pay the interest to you. Subject to any tax legislation, interest will be paid gross.
- 3.3. We will return monies held on your behalf promptly, as soon as there is no longer any reason to retain those funds. If any funds remain in our client account that are unclaimed, and the client to which they relate is not able to be traced, we may deal with those monies in accordance with the ICAS Clients' Money Regulations in force at that time.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 4.1. Unless we are authorised by you to disclose information on your behalf, we confirm that if you give us confidential information we will, at all times during and after this engagement, keep it confidential, except as required by law or as provided for in regulatory, ethical or other professional pronouncements applicable to us or our engagement.
- 4.2. You agree that, if we act for other clients who are or who become your competitors, to comply with our duty of confidentiality it will be sufficient for us to take such steps as we think appropriate to preserve the confidentiality of information given to us by you, both during and after this engagement. These may include taking the same or similar steps as we take in respect of the confidentiality of our own information.
- 4.3. In addition, if we act for other clients whose interests are or may be adverse to yours, we will manage the conflict by implementing additional safeguards to preserve confidentiality. Safeguards may include measures such as separate teams, physical separation of teams, and separate arrangements for storage of, and access to, information.
- 4.4. You agree that the effective implementation of such steps or safeguards as described above will provide adequate measures to avoid any real risk of confidentiality being impaired.

5. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 5.1. We will inform you if we become aware of any conflict of interest in our relationship with you or in our relationship with you and another client, unless we are unable to do so because of our confidentiality obligations. If conflicts are identified which cannot be managed in a way that protects your interests, we regret that we will be unable to provide further services.
- 5.2. If there is a conflict of interest that is capable of being addressed successfully by the adoption of suitable safeguards to protect your interests, we will adopt those safeguards. In resolving the conflict, we would be guided by ICAS's Code of Ethics, which can be viewed at <https://www.icas.com/professional-resources/ethics/icas-code-of-ethics>. During and after our engagement, you agree that we reserve the right to act for other clients whose interests are or may compete with or be adverse to yours, subject, of course, to our obligations of confidentiality and the safeguards set out in the paragraph on confidentiality above.

6. DATA PROTECTION

- 6.1. In this clause [6], the following definitions shall apply:

'client personal data' means any personal data provided to us by you, or on your behalf, for the purpose of providing our services to you, pursuant to our engagement letter with you;

'data protection legislation' means: (a) to the extent the UK GDPR applies, the law of the United Kingdom or of a part of the United Kingdom which relates to the protection of personal data; and (b) to the extent the EU GDPR applies, the law of the European Union or any member state of the European Union to which the Supplier is subject, which relates to the protection of personal data;

'controller', 'data subject', 'personal data', and 'process' shall have the meanings given to them in the UK GDPR, and supervisory authority shall have the meaning given to it in the EU GDPR;

'EU GDPR' means the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679), as it has effect in EU law;

'PECR' means the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 (SI 2426/2003); and

'UK GDPR' has the meaning given to it in section 3(10) (as supplemented by section 205(4)) of the Data Protection Act 2018.

- 6.2. Except in circumstances where we act as processor in relation to client personal data (for example if providing payroll services on your behalf), in which case Clauses 6.10 and 6.11 shall also apply, we shall each be considered an independent data controller in relation to the client personal data. Each of us will comply with all requirements and obligations applicable to us under the data protection legislation in respect of the client personal data.
- 6.3. You shall only disclose client personal data to us where:
- you have provided the necessary information to the relevant data subjects regarding its use (and you may use or refer to our privacy notice available at www.gerberlandagee.co.uk/privacy-notice for this purpose);
  - you have a lawful basis upon which to do so, which, in the absence of any other lawful basis, shall be with the relevant data subject's consent; and
  - you have complied with the necessary requirements under the data protection legislation to enable you to do so.
- 6.4. Should you require any further details regarding our treatment of personal data, please contact our data protection contact Heather Green on 0141 221 7446 or email mail@gerberlandagee.co.uk with subject "Data Protection".
- 6.5. We shall only process the client personal data:
- a) in order to provide our services to you and perform any other obligations in accordance with our engagement with you;
  - b) in order to comply with our legal or regulatory obligations; and
  - c) where it is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests and those interests are not overridden by the data subjects' own privacy rights. Our privacy notice (available at www.gerberlandagee.co.uk/privacy-notice) contains further details as to how we may process client personal data.
- 6.6. For the purpose of providing our services to you, we may disclose the client personal data to
- You
  - Any third party with whom you authorise us to disclose information
  - HMRC where necessary for the performance of our services and regulatory responsibilities
  - The National Crime Intelligence Services (or other similar Government bodies) where legally bound to do so or where our regulatory bodies require such sharing
  - Any professional body who regulates our work such as (but not exclusively) The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland and The Chartered Institute of Taxation e.g. where in the course of our work such disclosure is appropriate or required by these bodies
  - Our Professional Indemnity Insurance policy providers and their brokers where necessary in order to procure the required insurance for our services
  - Other advisors and service providers where necessary for the provision of our engaged services

If your information is shared with third parties in accordance with the above paragraphs, we will only share such personal information as is strictly required for the specific purposes. Our privacy notice (available at www.gerberlandagee.co.uk/privacy-notice) contains further details as to how we may process client personal data.

- 6.7. We shall maintain commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures, including administrative, physical and technical safeguards, to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of the client personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, the client personal data.
- 6.8. In respect of the client personal data, provided that we are legally permitted to do so, we shall promptly notify you in the event that:
  - (a) we receive a request, complaint or any adverse correspondence from or on behalf of a relevant data subject, to exercise their data subject rights under the data protection legislation or in respect of our processing of their personal data;
  - (b) we are served with an information, enforcement or assessment notice (or any similar notices), or receive any other material communication in respect of our processing of the client personal data from a supervisory authority as defined in the data protection legislation (for example in the UK, the Information Commissioner's Officer); or
  - (c) we reasonably believe that there has been any incident which resulted in the accidental or unauthorised access to, or destruction, loss, unauthorised disclosure or alteration of, the client personal data.
- 6.9. Upon the reasonable request of the other, we shall each co-operate with the other and take such reasonable commercial steps or provide such information as is necessary to enable each of us to comply with the data protection legislation in respect of the services provided to you in accordance with our engagement letter with you in relation to those services.
- 6.10. Where we act as processor in relation to the client personal data, unless otherwise required by applicable laws or other regulatory requirements, we shall:
  - process the client personal data only in accordance with your lawful written instructions, in order to provide you with the services pursuant to our engagement with you and in accordance with applicable data protection legislation;
  - maintain written records of our processing activities performed on your behalf which shall include: (i) the categories of processing activities performed; (ii) details of any cross border data transfers outside of the European Economic Area (EEA); AND (iii) a general description of security measures implemented in respect of the client personal data;
  - not transfer any client personal data outside of the EEA unless the following conditions are fulfilled: (i) either of us has provided appropriate safeguards in relation to the transfer; (ii) the relevant data subjects have enforceable rights and effective legal remedies; (iii) we comply with our obligations under the data protection legislation by providing an adequate level of protection to any client personal data that is transferred; and (iv) we comply with reasonable instructions that you notify to us in advance with respect to the processing of the client personal data;
  - return or delete all the client personal data upon the termination of the engagement with you pursuant to which we agreed to provide the services;
  - ensure that only those personnel who need to have access to the client personal data are granted access to it and that all of the personnel authorised to process the client personal data are bound by a duty of confidentiality;
  - notify you if we appoint a sub-processor (but only if you have given us your prior written consent, such consent not to be reasonably withheld or delayed) and ensure any agreement entered into with the relevant sub-processor includes similar terms as the terms set out section 13.

- make available to you as the Data Controller all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with your obligations under UK GDPR and will allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections conducted by you or another auditor mandated by you.

- 6.11 Where we act as processor in relation to the client personal data, you shall ensure you have full informed consent to pass it to us and will fully indemnify and hold us harmless if you do not have such consent and that causes us to suffer a loss. If you are supplying us with personal data on the basis of a power of attorney for anyone, you must produce to us an original or certified power of attorney on demand.

7. DISENGAGEMENT

If we resign or are asked to resign, we will normally issue a disengagement letter to ensure that our respective responsibilities are clear.

8. ELECTRONIC AND OTHER COMMUNICATION

- 8.1. Unless you instruct us otherwise, we may, if appropriate, communicate with you and with third parties by email or other electronic means. The recipient is responsible for virus checking emails and any attachments.
- 8.2. With electronic communication, there is a risk of non-receipt, delayed receipt, inadvertent misdirection or interception by third parties. We use virus-scanning software to reduce the risk of viruses and similar damaging items being transmitted in emails or by electronic storage devices. Nevertheless, electronic communication is not totally secure and we cannot be held responsible for damage or loss caused by viruses or for communications which are corrupted or altered after despatch. Nor can we accept any liability for problems or accidental errors relating to this means of communication, especially in relation to commercially sensitive material. These are risks you must bear in return for greater efficiency and lower costs. If you do not wish to accept these risks, please let us know and we will communicate by paper mail, other than when electronic submission is mandatory.

9. FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

- 9.1. Our fees may depend, not only upon the time spent on your affairs, but also on the level of skill and responsibility and the importance and value of the advice we provide, as well as the level of risk.
- 9.2. If we provide you with an estimate of our fees for any specific work, the estimate will not be contractually binding unless we explicitly state that will be the case. Otherwise, our fees will be calculated on the basis of the hours worked by each member of staff necessarily engaged on your affairs, multiplied by their charge-out rate per hour, VAT being charged thereon. Indicative hourly charge-out rates are available on request.
- 9.3. If requested, we may indicate a fixed fee for the provision of specific services or an indicative range of fees for a particular assignment. It is not our practice to identify fixed fees for more than a year ahead as such fee quotes need to be reviewed in the light of events. If it becomes apparent to us, due to unforeseen circumstances, that a fee quote is inadequate, we reserve the right to notify you of a revised figure or range and to seek your agreement thereto.
- 9.4. In some cases, you may be entitled to assistance with your professional fees, particularly in relation to any investigation into your tax affairs by HMRC. Assistance may be provided through insurance policies you hold or via membership of a professional or trade body. Other than where such insurance was arranged through us, you will need to advise us of any such insurance cover you have. You will remain liable for our fees regardless of whether all or part are liable to be paid by your insurers.

- 9.5. Our invoices will be due for payment upon presentation. Our fees are exclusive of VAT which will be added where it is chargeable. Any disbursements we incur on your behalf, and expenses incurred in the course of carrying out our work for you, will be added to our invoices where appropriate.
- 9.6. Unless otherwise agreed to the contrary, our fees do not include the costs of any third party, counsel or other professional fees. If these costs are incurred to fulfil our engagement, such necessary additional charges may be payable by you.
- 9.7. We reserve the right to charge interest on late paid invoices at the rate of 8% above bank base rates under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998. We also reserve the right to suspend our services or to cease to act for you, having given written notice, if payment of any fees is unduly delayed. We intend to exercise these rights only if it is fair and reasonable to do so.
- 9.8. If you do not accept that an invoiced fee is fair and reasonable, you must notify us within 21 days of receipt, failing which, you will be deemed to have accepted that payment is due.

10. HELP US TO GIVE YOU THE BEST SERVICE

- 10.1. We are committed to providing you with a high quality service that is both efficient and effective. If, at any point you would like to discuss with us how our service to you could be improved, or if you are dissatisfied with the service you are receiving, please let us know by emailing mail@gerberlandagee.co.uk.
- 10.2. We will consider carefully any complaint you may make about our service as soon as we receive it and do all we can to explain the position to you. We will acknowledge your email within ten business days of its receipt and endeavour to deal with your complaint within eight weeks.
- 10.3. If we do not answer your complaint to your satisfaction, you may, of course, take up the matter with our professional body, ICAS.

11. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND USE OF OUR NAME

- 11.1. We will retain all intellectual property rights in any document prepared by us during the course of carrying out the engagement except where the law specifically states otherwise.
- 11.2. You are not permitted to use our name in any statement or document you may issue unless our prior written consent has been obtained. The only exception to this restriction would be statements or documents that, in accordance with applicable law, are to be made public.

12. INTERPRETATION

- 12.1. If any provision of our engagement letter or terms of business is held to be void, that provision will be deemed not to form part of this contract. In the event of any conflict between these terms of business and the engagement letter or appendices, the relevant provision in the engagement letter or schedules will take precedence.

13. INTERNAL DISPUTES WITHIN A CLIENT

- 13.1. If we become aware of a dispute between the parties who own the business or who are in some way involved in its ownership and management, it should be noted that our client is the business and we would not provide information or services to one party without the express knowledge and permission of all parties. Unless otherwise agreed by all parties, we will continue to supply information to the registered office for the attention of the directors/partners/trustees. If conflicting advice, information or instructions are received from different directors/partners/trustees in the business, we will refer the matter back to the board of directors/the partnership and take no further action until the board/partnership has agreed the action to be taken.

14. INVESTMENT ADVICE (INCLUDING INSURANCE DISTRIBUTION SERVICES)

- 14.1. Investment business is regulated by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. If, during the provision of professional services to you, you need advice on investments [including insurances], we may have to refer you to someone who is authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority as we are not. However, as we are licensed by ICAS, we may be able to provide certain investment services that are complementary to, or arise out of, the professional services we are providing to you. In the unlikely event that we cannot meet our liabilities to you, you may be able to claim compensation under the Chartered Accountants' Compensation Scheme in respect of exempt regulated activities undertaken. Further information about the scheme and the circumstances in which grants may be made is available on ICAS's website: www.icas.com/regulation/complaints-and-sanctions/investment-business-compensation-scheme

15. LIEN

- 15.1. Insofar as we are permitted to so by law or by professional guidelines, we reserve the right to exercise a lien over all funds, documents and records in our possession relating to all engagements for you until all outstanding fees and disbursements are paid in full.

16. LIMITATION OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS

- 16.1. The advice and information we provide to you as part of our service is for your sole use, and not for any third party to whom you may communicate it, unless we have expressly agreed in the engagement letter that a specified third party may rely on our work. We accept no responsibility to third parties, including any group company to whom the engagement letter is not addressed, for any advice, information or material produced as part of our work for you which you make available to them. A party to this agreement is the only person who has the right to enforce any of its terms, and no rights or benefits are conferred on any third party under the Contract (Third Party Rights) (Scotland) Act 2017.

17. PERIOD OF ENGAGEMENT AND TERMINATION

- 17.1. Unless otherwise agreed in our engagement letter, our work will begin when we receive implicit or explicit acceptance of that letter. Except as stated in that letter, we will not be responsible for periods before that date.
- 17.2. Each of us may terminate our agreement by giving not less than 21 days' notice in writing to the other party except if you fail to cooperate with us or we have reason to believe that you have provided us or HMRC with misleading information, in which case we may terminate this agreement immediately. Termination will be without prejudice to any rights that may have accrued to either of us before termination.
- 17.3. We reserve the right to terminate the engagement between us with immediate effect in the event of: your insolvency, bankruptcy or other arrangement being reached with creditors; an independence issue or change in the law which means we can no longer act; failure to pay our fees by the due dates; or either party being in breach of their obligations if this is not corrected within 30 days of being asked to do so.

- 17.4. In the event of termination of our contract, we will endeavour to agree with you the arrangements for the completion of work in progress at that time, unless we are required for legal or regulatory reasons to cease work immediately. In that event, we will not be required to carry out further work and shall not be responsible or liable for any consequences arising from termination.

18. PROFESSIONAL RULES AND STATUTORY OBLIGATIONS

- 18.1. We will observe and act in accordance with the Bye-laws, regulations and Code of Ethics of ICAS including Professional Conduct in Relation to Taxation and will accept instructions to act for you on this basis. In particular you give us the authority to correct errors made by HMRC if we become aware of them. We will not be liable for any loss, damage or cost arising from our compliance with statutory or regulatory obligations. You can see copies of these requirements in our offices. The requirements are also available online at <https://www.icas.com/governance/charter/icas-rules-and-regulations>.
- 18.2. We confirm that we are statutory auditors eligible to conduct audits under the Companies Act 2006. When conducting audit work, we are required to comply with the Ethical and Auditing Standards issued by the FRC, which can be accessed online at www.frc.org.uk/Our-Work/Codes-Standards/Audit-and-assurance/Standards-and-guidance/Standards-and-guidance-for-auditors.aspx. We are also required to comply with the Audit Regulations and Guidance which can be accessed at <https://www.icas.com/governance/charter/icas-rules-and-regulations>.

19. QUALITY CONTROL

- 19.1. As part of our ongoing commitment to provide a quality service, our files are periodically reviewed by an independent regulatory or quality control body. These reviewers are highly experienced professionals and are bound by the same rules of confidentiality as our principals and staff.
- 19.2. When dealing with HMRC on your behalf we are required to be honest and to take reasonable care to ensure that your returns are correct. To enable us to do this, you are required to be honest with us and to provide us with all necessary information in a timely manner. For more information about 'Your Charter' for your dealings with HMRC, visit www.gov.uk/government/publications/your-charter. To the best of our abilities, we will ensure that HMRC meet their side of the Charter in their dealings with you.

20. RELIANCE ON ADVICE

- 20.1. We will endeavour to record all advice on important matters in writing. Advice given orally is not intended to be relied upon unless confirmed in writing. Therefore, if we provide oral advice (for example, during the course of a meeting or a telephone conversation) and you wish to be able to rely on that advice, you must ask for the advice to be confirmed by us in writing. Advice is valid as at the date it was given.

21. RETENTION OF PAPERS

- 21.1. You have a legal responsibility to retain documents and records relevant to your financial affairs. During the course of our work we may collect information from you and others relevant to your tax and financial affairs. We will return any original documents to you [if requested]. Documents and records relevant to your tax affairs are required by law to be retained as follows:

Individuals, trustees and partnerships:

- a) with trading or rental income: five years and 10 months after the end of the tax year
- b) otherwise: 22 months after the end of the tax year.

Companies, Limited Liability Partnerships, and other corporate entities:

- c) six years from the end of the accounting period.

- 21.2. Although certain documents may legally belong to you, we may destroy correspondence and other papers that we store electronically or otherwise that are more than six years old, except documents we think may be of continuing significance. You must tell us if you wish us to keep any document for any longer period.
- 21.3. If we resign or are asked to resign, we will return any original documents or documents that legally belong to you on request, subject to any right of lien that we may have. If you fail to collect such records within six months from the date of our disengagement letter, you agree that we are no longer responsible for their safekeeping and that we may destroy documents and records that we hold.

Prior to destruction of the documents, we shall issue a reminder for the collection of records at least 1 month prior to the destruction of records. In addition, a final reminder shall be issued at least 14 days prior to the destruction of records.

22. THE PROVISION OF SERVICES REGULATIONS 2009

- 22.1. We are registered to carry on audit work in the UK by ICAS. Details of our audit registration can be viewed at www.auditregister.org.uk
- 22.2. We are covered by professional indemnity insurance. Details are available on request.

23. TIMING OF OUR SERVICES

- 23.1. If you provide us with all information and explanations on a timely basis in accordance with our requirements, we will plan to undertake the work within a reasonable period of time to meet any regulatory deadlines. However, failure to complete our services before any such regulatory deadline would not, of itself, mean that we are liable for any penalty or additional costs arising.
